

Flushing Training Center 6034 Pierson Rd. Flushing, MI 48433

During the remodel of our Flushing location we converted the 600 sq ft of office space to an air conditioned training center. Auto Pride Collision has invested thousands of dollars in training our technicians, and understands the need for continually staying on top of technological changes happening in automotive design every day. We constructed the training center as a way to give back to our industry, it will provide a comfortable setting for technicians and refinishers, estimators, and auto damage appraisers to receive some of the training necessary to their job roles.

This center is also providing training to Insurance Agents in the area, in the form of Continuing Education Credits they require to maintain their licenses. We have presented one class already, and two more on the schedule for this year. The plan is to offer a full years schedule next year on our website, this year is up now, check it out at; www.autopridercollision.com under the education tab.

Lastly we would like to make this facility available to all of our insurance partners. It can be used free of charge for meetings or training for groups of up to 20. With all of the downsizing and elimination of office space, it may be just the space you need to take care of business, just our way of giving back to the industry.
